

DU VC urges students to become a man of moral values

Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Md. Akhtaruzzaman urged the students to become a man of moral values instead of a man of success. The VC was addressing as chief guest the orientation program of 1st year Honors students of different departments under the Faculty of Arts of DU today January 28, 2020 at TSC auditorium. Students' Counseling and Guidance Office of DU organized the program.

Director of Students' Counseling and Guidance Office Prof. Dr. Mahjabeen

Haque presided over the program while Pro-Vice Chancellor (Administration) Prof.

Dr. Muhammad Samad and Dean of the Faculty of Arts Prof. Dr. Abu Md. Delwar

Hossain addressed it as special guests. Chairmen and Students Advisors of different departments were present on this occasion.

Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. Md. Akhtaruzzaman called upon the students to prepare themselves with the combination of merit, truthfulness, patriotism and honesty to take future leadership of the country. They must equip themselves with the spirit of Liberation War to serve the nation, the VC added.
